

EXECUTIVE WIN

A FALKIRK information technology firm has won a contract with the Scottish Executive to provide a central portal for project information and documentation for all 32 local authorities. Campbell Lee - which employs around 60 staff in Falkirk, Aberdeen and Glasgow – has struck the “significant” deal under the second phase of the Executive’s Modernising Government initiative. A spokesman yesterday declined to disclose how much the contract was worth.

PRESS & JOURNAL

18/08/03